

Our democracy works only when the voter is able to form a judgement after hearing all sides of the issues. We need to have media which reflect a wide range of views. For this reason I oppose the change in regulations which will allow large organizations to control even more of the media than is now allowed.